Help From The Hills

Mountains represent many things. They furnish a beauty for the eye to behold as no other landscape. Mountains are difficult to climb, and mountain top experiences do not come easily. But there is help from climbing the hills that we find in our pathway.

1. The Hill of Difficulty

When Jesus led his followers to the upward path of hardship, many of them stopped following him. But those who followed on to the top of the mountain received great reward. Some were miraculously fed, and others enjoyed the priceless presence of God.

2. The Hill of Defeat

Sometimes the child of God suffers defeat, or loses a battle. But, the war is not over yet, and when a battle is lost we must not surrender the war. We are made stronger as we climb.

3. The Hill of Dependence

As we travel up the mountain, trials will test us to see if we really are sincere. May we have faith and total dependence on God. Become aware of His presence and power within us.
